

Oylim Song

By Eliezer Schindler

Translation by Miriam Oles

Let us show our people
The way of the Torah,
With Knowledge, Compassion, and Glory¹
To serve our Creator.

To Knowledge, Compassion, and Glory,
Oylim let us strive,
And with holiness and purity
Build Jewish lives.

That the fire from the bush²
Will Burn among the Jews,
And all the nations see,
All come to know God.

That there will be an end to Diaspora,
To the long night;
And the days of Redemption will arrive
With majesty and splendor.

² Reference to the burning bush that appeared to Moses in Exodus 3:1-17.
